During your treatment at Open Door Health Center (ODHC), providers, nurses, other caregivers and staff may gather information about your medical history and your current health. This notice explains how that information may be used and shared with others. It also explains your privacy rights regarding this kind of information. The terms of this notice apply to health information created or received by ODHC. We are required by law to: make sure that medical information that identifies you is kept private; give you this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to medical information about you; follow the terms of the notice that is currently in effect, and notify you in the event there is a breach of any unsecured Protected Health Information (PHI) about you.

Your medical information may be used and disclosed for the following purposes:

TREATMENT: We may use your information to provide, coordinate, and manage your care and treatment. Prior written consent is required for these disclosures, except in the case of an emergency when it is not possible to obtain your consent.

PAYMENT: We may use and disclose medical information about you so that the treatment and services you receive may be billed to, and payment may be collected from, you, and your insurance company, or another third party. We will obtain your written consent prior to making disclosures for payment purposes.

HEALTH CARE OPERATIONS: We may use and disclose medical information about you for ODHC's healthcare operations. Healthcare operations are the uses and disclosures of information that are necessary to run ODHC, and to make sure that all of our patients receive quality care. We will get your written consent prior to making disclosures to others outside of ODHC for healthcare operations purposes.

APPOINTMENT REMINDERS and OTHER HEALTH INFORMATION: We may use your medical information to send you reminders about future appointments. We may also send you refill reminders or other communications about your current medications. However, if we receive any financial remuneration for making such refill or medication communication beyond our costs of making the communication, we must first obtain your written authorization to make such communications. We may contact you with information about new or alternative treatments or health care services or for purposes of care coordination, unless we receive financial remuneration in exchange for making the communication. In that case, we will obtain your written authorization to make such communications. However, we are not required to obtain your written authorization for face-to-face communications.

You have the right to opt-out of receiving such fundraising communication. Each fundraising communication you receive will include an opportunity to opt-out of future fundraising communications. Alternatively, you may notify ODHC's Compliance Manager to opt-out of fundraising communications.

TO PEOPLE ASSISTING IN YOUR CARE: ODHC will only disclose medical information to those taking care of you, helping you pay your bills, or other close family members or friends if these people need to know this information to help you, and then only to the extent permitted by law. We will ask for written consent prior to making disclosures about you to family or friends. If you are able to make your own health care decisions, ODHC will ask your permission before using your medical information for these purposes. If you are unable to make health care decisions, ODHC will disclose relevant medical information to family members or other responsible people if we feel it is in your best interest to do so, including in an emergency situation.

RESEARCH: Federal law permits ODHC to use and disclose medical information about you for research purposes, either with your specific written authorization, or when the study has been reviewed for privacy protection by an Institutional Review Board or Privacy Board before the research begins. In some cases, researchers may be permitted to use information in a limited way to determine whether the study or the potential participants are appropriate. Minnesota law generally requires that we get your consent before we disclose your health information to an outside researcher. We will make a good faith effort to obtain your consent or refusal to participate in any research study, as required by law, prior to releasing any identifiable information about you to outside researchers.

AS REQUIRED BY LAW: We will disclose medical information about you when we are required to do so by federal, state or local law.

TO AVERT A SERIOUS THREAT TO HEALTH OR SAFETY: We may use and disclose medical information about you when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person. Any disclosure must be only to someone able to help prevent the threat. In addition, Minnesota law generally does not permit these disclosures unless we have your written consent, or when the disclosure is specifically required by law, including the limited circumstances in which ODHC health care professionals have a "duty to warn."

You have the following rights regarding medical information we maintain about you:

RIGHT TO INSPECT and COPY: You have the right to inspect and receive a copy of your medical information that is used to make decisions about your care. Usually, this includes medical and billing records maintained by ODHC. If you wish to inspect and copy medical information, you must submit your request in writing to the Health Information Specialist. If you request a copy of the information, we may charge a reasonable fee for the costs of copying, mailing, or other supplies associated with your request, to the extent permitted by state and federal law. If we maintain your health information electronically as part of a designated record set, you have the right to receive a copy of your health information in electronic format upon your request. You may also direct us to transmit your health information (hard or electronic copy) directly to an entity or person clearly and specifically designated by you in writing. We may deny your request to inspect and copy your information in limited circumstances. In these cases, we may supply the information to a third party who may release the information to you. If you are denied access to medical information, you may request that the denial be reviewed. Another licensed healthcare professional chosen by ODHC will review your request and the denial. The person conducting the review will not be the person who denied your request. We will comply with the outcome of the review.

RIGHT TO AN ACCOUNTING OF DISCLOSURES: You have the right to request an “accounting of disclosures.” This is a list of the disclosures we made of medical information about you. This list will not include disclosures for treatment, payment, and healthcare operations; disclosures that you have authorized for treatment, payment, and healthcare operations; disclosures that you have authorized or that have been made to you; disclosures for facility directories; disclosures for national security or intelligence purposes; disclosures to correctional institutions or law enforcement with custody of you; disclosures that took place before April 14, 2003; and certain other disclosures. To request this list of disclosures, you must submit your request in writing to the Health Information Specialist. Your request must state a time period for which you would like the accounting. The accounting period may not go back further than six years from the date of the request, and it may not include dates before April 14, 2003. You may receive one free accounting in any 12-month period. We will charge you for additional requests.

You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the information is kept by or for ODHC. To request a change to your information, your request must be made in writing and submitted to the Health Information Specialist. In addition, you must provide a reason that supports your request. We may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing or does not include a reason to support the request. In addition, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:

- ▶ Is not part of the information which you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or
- ▶ Is accurate and complete.

RIGHT TO REQUEST RESTRICTIONS: You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the medical information we use or disclose about you. If you pay out-of-pocket in full for an item, or service, then you may request that we not disclose information pertaining solely to such item or service to your health plan for purposes of payment or health care operations. We are required to agree with such a request, unless you request a restriction on the information we disclose to a Health Maintenance Organization (“HMO”) and the law prohibits us from accepting payment from you above the cost-sharing amount for the item or service that is the subject of the requested restriction. However, we are not required to agree to any other request. If we do agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you emergency treatment or you request that we remove the restriction. To request restrictions, you must make your request in writing to the Health Information Specialist. In your request, you must tell us (1) what information you want to limit; (2) whether you want to limit our use, disclosure, or both; and (3) to whom you want the limits to apply.

RIGHT TO REQUEST CONFIDENTIAL COMMUNICATIONS: You have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location. To request confidential communications, you must make your request in writing to the Compliance Manager. We will not ask you the reason for your request. We will accommodate all reasonable requests. Your request must specify how or where you wish to be contacted, and we may require you to provide information about how payment will be handled.

RIGHT TO A PAPER COPY OF THIS NOTICE: You have the right to receive a paper copy of this notice. You may ask us to give you a copy of this notice at any time.

CHANGES TO THIS NOTICE: The effective date of this notice is October 28, 2019. We reserve the right to change this notice. We reserve the right to make the revised or changed notice effective for medical information we already have about you, as well as any information we receive in the future. If the terms of this notice are changed, ODHC will provide you with a revised notice upon request, and we will post the revised notice on our website and in designated locations at ODHC.

OTHER USES AND DISCLOSURES OF PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION: We are required to obtain a written authorization from you for most uses and disclosures of psychotherapy notes, uses and disclosures of protected health information for marketing purposes and disclosures that constitute a sale of protected health information. Except as described in this Notice, ODHC will not use or disclose your protected health information without a specific written authorization from you. If you provide us with this written authorization to use or disclose medical information about you may revoke that authorization, in writing, at any time. If you revoke your authorization, we will no longer use or disclose medical information about you for the reasons covered by your written authorization, except to the extent we have already relied on your authorization. We are unable to take back any disclosures we have already made with your permission, and we are required to retain our records of the care that we provided you.
